AMBITION IS A SUPERPOWER - NOT A SACRIFICE

ACTIVATE YOUR INTUITIVE LEADERSHIP TO RUN YOUR BUSINESS LIKE A BOSS!

After more than 10 years of career achievements in the marketing industry, Queirra hit rock bottom when her employer spoke five dreaded words, "Today is your last day." That moment turned into her ultimate breakthrough - not only were her achievements not keeping her safe, they were also burning her out.

As an ICF Professional Certified Coach (PCC), Queirra integrates her accredited coach training, marketing expertise and high-achieving lifestyle to help executives and entrepreneurs amplify their results by strengthening their intuitive leadership.

By the end of this dynamic and interactive presentation, attendees will:

- ◆ Shift from hustling for other's approval to trusting their gut in growing their business
- ◆ Embrace their drive to become the mogul their clients need them to be – without the burnout
- ◆ Clarify what intuition is (and is not) to slay self-doubt and stop analysis paralysis
- ◆ Tap into the optimum blend of power (fueled both by intuition and ambition) when taking any critical step in their business

This presentation can be delivered as a keynote, group presentation, or as a workshop. In a longer workshop, participants will learn tips and strategies for listening to their own intuition, prevent burnout and build their leadership confidence in their business and life.
